

Luxury Pet Pavilion Spring Show

Photography Order Form

Mary Bloom

Show Photographer

Mary Bloom has been a professional photographer focusing on the bond between people and animals, especially dogs, since 1978. Her photographs have appeared in numerous publications including Life, Smithsonian Magazine, The New York Times, Newsweek, The Los Angeles Times, Family Circle and a variety of other publications. Ms. Bloom has been an official Westminster Kennel Club photographer since 1995. Her studio is located in upstate New York.

The Luxury Pet Pavilion will have Mary Bloom as our Official Show Photographer. She will be taking photos and documenting the entire weekend events including all special events that the Luxury Pet Pavilion will host. For a flat fee you can receive a disk of all photos taken during the show. This could be a wonderful opportunity to have your items photographed in Digital High Resolution by the best in the industry. When company places order to have their booth and/or products shot those photo's will only be distributed to the company that has hired the said photographer and will not be on the disk containing the Complete Show Documentation.
